1) If the pay is at Re 1-3-2. how did it amount to Rs 389-8-2.

2). The dy Collr has written about the Vakil award in June 1922. Why should the pay for the period be withheld? Did he do the work then? If so nothing. You ought to have examined the records before submission

28/11/24

The arrears are from Nov. 1896 to the end of Nov. 1921 i.e. for 325 months at Rs 1-3-2 per mensem as endorsed on the Bill. (79) - The Muz. Comrs. report is not helpful.

From a Mahazar Dy 23-10-1922, it is seen that the newly appointed Khazi & his Vakeel were doing Khazi duties for 27 years past.

The arrears of pay relate to the period from 1894 to 1921, and the present holder of the Dhai 2 Khoja, in whose favour, the whole of the arrears is recommended was appointed only in June 1922. Before him, his uncle ~~did~~ performed the service for some time & then ~~his family~~ dispute & a Sumartha did the work. It is very doubtful if all the arrears can be paid to one who did not work during the period to which the relate. The fee is incidental which appears under Sub-Div Officer dated 9-2-23 in which Reader the two same points were raised, but they don't seem to have been pursued. It is for consideration if the file may be sanctioned
